Training lesson and special lesson

During a training lesson driving in the city and the basic driving tasks are trained.

During a special lesson driving on a highway and country road are trained.

The number of driving lessons is variable.

We recommend the following number of driving lessons so that you can practise all the basic driving tasks and traffic rules relevant to the test with your driving instructor:

- approx. 5 appointments of 90 minutes each (10 training lessons of 45 minutes) if you already have a lot of experience driving in a large German city and on German motorways.
- approx. 10 appointments of 90 minutes each (20 training lessons of 45 minutes) if you have no experience of driving in a German city and on German motorways.

This depends on your previous knowledge, comprehension, concentration, ability and age.

Expected total costs in the training type BALANCED

- Basic amount training type BASIC 499,- €
 - + Studentmanager App Fahren Lernen 99,- €
 - + Appointment planner 59,- €
 - + 10 training lessons happy hour 889,- €
 - + Fuel surcharge 10 training lessons 15,- €
 - + Theoretical examination 139,- €
 - + Practical examination 399,- €
- = total expected costs 2099,- €

This total expected costs are not a flat rate/package price. According to the learner driver training regulations, a flat rate/package price of the training costs is not permitted and the total costs of the training depend on the number of practice drives required. According to the learner driver training ordinance, the number of practice drives is not fixed and must therefore be carried out individually depending on the learner driver's level of proficiency. The number of practice drives expected in order to pass the practical test successfully cannot be quantified exactly at the beginning of the training.

10 training lessons is an average value with which it is usually possible to successfully pass the practical test. Depending on the level of proficiency, however, fewer or more training lessons may be required.

Upgrade typ of training

An upgrade to a higher type of training is always possible. It is not possible to change to a lower type of training. If a service of a higher type of training is used, an upgrade is made automatically.

Terms of payment

- The basic amount and the appointment planner are due upon registration.
